CAN stands for Child Ambassador Network

Caudwell Children Ambassadors

- Are the face of the charity
- Help everyone understand disability
- Help raise money
- Support other young people
- Attend fun events
- Are decision makers

Would you like to be part of a fun and exciting group of young people?

We are looking for children to join our Child Ambassador Network – CAN for short.

CAN you?

Talk to people about your views and ideas

Raise awareness of disability

If so join CAN!

Why should I join CAN?

You Will

- Have lots of fun
- Visit new and exciting places and meet new people
- Make new friends from all backgrounds
- Learn new things
- Share your views
- Shape local and national policies & services, to change the lives of other disabled children

What would I do as an ambassador?

CAN members will

- Be the face of the charity
- Be-friend other young people
- Share their views
- Design posters, websites and make short films
- Go to exciting events across the UK
- Help us and other people make decisions
- Undertake fundraising activities

Where would I do it?

Wherever you like!

- Some members take part online, creating new things for the website
- Some attend fun activities or local fundraising events
- Some share their ideas
- Some travel to events across the country
- Some do all of these things!

Becoming a member is really easy

You can put as much or as little time into being a CAN member, so it fits in with all your other activities. Remember your involvement will change the lives of young disabled people.

Young ambassadors create and display their own profiles, make short films or cartoons, write reviews, and even design new areas of the website.

You can go to caudwellchildren.com/youthzone and download the form or fill in the form in this booklet. Please send this back to us here at the Charity (address can be found on the back page).

Please send your films, articles, ideas, pictures and reviews to can@caudwellchildren.com
